

SJCC TALENT HUNT

“Talent is a gift from god, what you do with it is your gift to god”

SJCC was host to two different talent hunts within a span of a month in order to showcase its varied pool of talents. The talent hunt, organized in association with ‘Radio Mirchi’ and ‘Times of India’ proved to be a mounting success as students flocked to share the stage space in order to get noticed and make it big in the cultural arena. The events also proved as a morale booster for unnoticed talent within the college. Thus, due recognition was given and efforts put in by every individually was appreciated on a wide scale.

Note: Newspaper clippings attached in the general secretary hard copy file.