

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The Post Graduation department of SJCC comprises a range of activities that students participate in outside of their academic studies to enhance their skills and attributes. It provides students the opportunity to not only study but also to learn from and interact with fellow students. Co-curricular activities in the department are organized by student driven committees. Some of these activities are:

- a. Elections: The department conducts elections every academic year for the post of PG Coordinator. The election for the post of PG Coordinator for the academic year 2016-17 found a new course of line in the election procedures. Interested students who apply for this post are interviewed by a panel of experts and the most eligible student is elected after the selection process. Ms. Alamelu was nominated by the panel as the PG Coordinator for the academic year 2016-2017.
- b. Fresher's Day: At the beginning of every academic year, students of II M.Com and M.Com (IB) organize a Fresher's Party for the newly enrolled students with an appropriate theme for the party. The highlight includes students dressing up as per the said themes. The programme includes dance performances, group songs, icebreakers and fun games which create a strong bond among the PG Department. The event ends with a healthy competition between the first year students of both the sections where the winner is awarded with the title of Mr. and Ms. Fresher.
- c. Domestic Trip: On 18th of October, the students of II M.Com and M.Com (IB) left the campus as a group accompanied by Ms.Poornima and Mr. Lloyd for a domestic trip to unwind from the stress and worries of their exams. The students travelled to Dandeli where they took part in adventurous water sports and activities. In Gokarna, the students enjoyed the beautiful beach and the sunset. In Yana, the students went trekking and explored the beautiful caves which led them to the historic temple. The students ended the trip visiting the famous Jog Falls in Shivmoga. The quality time spent together as a group on an adventure, seemed to only bring the students closer together and create a bond between them.

- d. Joy of Giving: On 30th November 2016, the Post Graduate Department of SJCC became the host for the children of Sneha Home Care. There were about 67 children aged between 6 to 12 years who were accompanied with the teachers and care takers of the organization. The programme kick started with a magic show where the magician engaged the children for with various tricks and fun games. The Department kept the students engaged with dance sessions and movie time. This continued with a small jam session which gave a chance to the children to showcase their hidden talents. Post lunch, various games were lined up for children like dodge ball, pole relay, lucky 6, rings, etc., and prizes were distributed at the end of the games. As a small pre-Christmas celebration, the kids were given gifts as our token of love.
- e. Potluck: The PG Department started a new tradition of organizing potlucks as this brings the department together to share few special moments. It was organized for the first years and the second years separately in the odd semester and the even semester witnessed a combined potluck of all the four classes as part of Christmas celebrations. This brought out the chef in each and every student to cook varieties of dishes for their classmates. It helped the class and department to showcase their unity. The students and the teachers enjoyed the various cuisines with a pinch of fun and laughter. It also helped the students away from home feel at home during this event.
- f. Sports: The College emphasizes the development of physical powers along with intellectual growth in its endeavor to provide quality education. The college has carved out a name for itself in the field of sports and games. Students are encouraged to participate in inter-class and inter-collegiate tournaments. The Annual Sports day is held during the second week of December every year in which the PG department actively participates in March past and other games like sack race, tug of war, relay, etc., This serves as a platform where students from the PG department are able to show case their talents in the field of sports. Apart from these activities, a number of inter class games such as football, throw ball, cricket, badminton and basket ball are held within the department. Students from the department are also selected to represent the college team at various tournaments outside the institution. Some of the achievements of the students from the department are below:

1. Mr. Surya B from II M.Com(IB) was awarded as the Best Fielder in the College Premiere League organized by Jain University on December.
