AND

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE OF COMMERCE (AUTONOMOUS), BANGALORE, INDIA

DATED: 04.01.2021

THIS MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT is made this 4th day of January 2021

BETWEEN

MAHSA UNIVERSITY of Jalan SP 2, Bandar Saujana Putra, 42610, Jenjarom, Selangor Darul Ehsan, Malaysia (hereinafter referred to as "MAHSA")

AND

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE OF COMMERCE (AUTONOMOUS), #163, Brigade Road, Bangalore -560025, Indian (hereinafter referred to as "SJCC")

WHEREAS

The Parties hereto, recognising the benefits of establishing international links, wish to strengthen the ties between their respective institutions by entering into this Memorandum of Agreement ("MOA").

NOW IT IS HEREBY AGREED

1. The purpose of this MOA is to develop co-operation and promote mutual understanding and excellence in practice-based education, research and knowledge exchange between the Parties. Both agree to strengthen ties of friendship and to promote Cultural, Educational and Scientific Cooperation.
2. In furtherance of this purpose the Parties agree to develop the following activities in collaboration in areas of mutual academic interest:
 - 2.1 Exchanges of academic and administrative staff and mutual visits to pursue research and to lecture
 - 2.2 Exchanges of students and/or study abroad programmes and other enhancements to the student experience
 - 2.3 Identifying opportunities for conducting collaborative research and development
 - 2.4 Identifying opportunities for conducting lectures and seminars and organising symposia and conferences
 - 2.5 Exchanges of academic information and materials
 - 2.6 Promoting collaboration in fields of mutual interest
 - 2.7 Promoting other academic co-operation and collaboration as mutually agreed.

3. The Parties hereby agree that the development and implementation of specific activities developed under this MOA will be the subject of formal written agreements negotiated and entered into separately, which will deal with the financial arrangements, confidentiality, ownership and use of intellectual property, publication of articles or other work and other relevant matters and shall depend upon the availability of resources and financial support of the Parties concerned.
4. Parties acknowledge the need to promote the programme and activities and hereby agree to use promotional materials that have been approved by the other Party.
5. Both Parties agree that staff and students of either institution engaged in any activities shall carry out these activities in accordance with the laws and regulations of their respective countries after full consultation and approval.
6. This MOA may only be amended by a written agreement signed by a duly authorised representative of each Party.
7. Any notice or request given or made by one party to the other under this MOA shall be in writing in the language of English to be sent to the following emails: MAHSA: syriac@mahsa.edu.my SJCC: internationaldesk@sjcc.edu.in

This MOA shall commence of the date of its execution by the last Party to sign and shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years.

8. Either Party may terminate this MOA by giving six months' notice in writing to the other stating the reasons for the termination, consent of which shall not be unreasonably withheld. The termination of this MOA shall not affect the implementation of any specific activities established under a separate agreement prior to such termination.
9. Nothing in this MOA shall be construed as creating any legal relationships between the Parties.

Cooperation Agreement

between

Globethics.net Foundation

and

St. Joseph's College of Commerce (Autonomous), Bangalore

The goal of this Cooperation Agreement between Globethics.net Foundation and St. Joseph's College of Commerce, Bangalore (SJCC) is to create synergies and to strengthen the implementation of the objectives of the respective organisations. The Cooperation Agreement is rooted in the shared goal of the partners to promote ethics in higher education and is built upon the respective capacities and competencies of the partners.

The Globethics.net Foundation is a network of teachers and institutions with the vision of embedding ethics in higher education through ETHICS. This stands for Empowerment, Transformation, a Holistic approach, Integrity, Competence and Sustainability. Globethics.net strategic focus is on Ethics in Higher Education. Globethics.net strives to: empower teachers in higher education through teacher training, research, course development and collaborative projects; support institutions in their efforts to introduce ethical behaviour in higher education institutions and support the integration of relevant and contextual standards and structures; provide professions with educational materials adapted to their profession to grow a deeper understanding of ethics in their context (for them to use to practice ethics); encourage students to behave ethically, showing them best practices of individuals, companies and organisations that have become successful by following ethical standards and principles; and contribute to achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

Their core values are responsibility, quality first, teamwork, respect, trust, contextualization and inclusion/fairness. The Globethics.net Foundation has its legal domicile at 150, route de Ferney, CH-1211 Geneva 2, Switzerland. Since 2004, Globethics.net has built up resources and partnerships and repositioned itself with the aforementioned mission.

St. Joseph's College of Commerce (SJCC) began as a Department of Commerce in 1949 at St. Joseph's College (Estd.1882). This department was moved to Brigade Road campus in 1972 and became an independent college under the name St. Joseph's college of commerce (SJCC). SJCC is affiliated to the Bengaluru City University. Currently there are over 3000 students in B.B.A, B.Com and M.Com programmes at SJCC.

St. Joseph's College of Commerce was conferred autonomous status in October 2004 and recognised as a "College with Potential for Excellence" in February 2010 by UGC. The college is re-accredited with 'A++' grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). It has been consistently ranked within the top 100 colleges by the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), MHRD. Since its inception, the college has been a state-of-the-art space for Commerce and Management Education focusing on multi-dimensional responsive to the significant changes and developments in the field of Higher Education as well as in domain of Commerce and Management. St. Joseph's College of Commerce is legally domiciled at 163, Brigade Road, Bengaluru, India.

Globethics.net and St. Joseph's College of Commerce hereby agree to:

1. Contribute to the rich field of higher education in India. Globethics.net and St. Joseph's College of Commerce will each take up specific roles, fitting to each organization's capacity and strategy to promote ethics in higher education applied across disciplines and stakeholders.
2. Strengthen the integration of ethics in SJCC by extending the Globethics.net activities within its students and faculty members.
3. Share the library materials and publications opportunities of Globethics.net.
4. Share Globethics.net Academy e-learning course opportunities with options for contextualization.
5. Organize the Globethics.net training-of-trainers for staff, teachers and leadership at SJCC to develop their competencies and empower them in their professional and personal lives through ethics and sustainable development.
6. Conduct joint conferences, trainings, research related activities and exchange of academic resources around ethics.
7. Cooperate on other projects of mutual interest.
8. Promote each other's activities in their respective networks and websites when agreed by both parties
9. Mention each other as project/cooperation partners.

Period: This Cooperation Agreement comes into effect on 20 September 2021 and is renewed every year. It can be modified with mutual consent. In case of dissatisfaction of either party with the implementation of the Cooperation Agreement, it can be dissolved at the end of a calendar year with six months' notice.
