Contemporary Debates I: Society, Language, & Culture

Course Description: This course is designed to engage students in debates on society, language, and culture in the Indian context. Through extended discussions and close reading of a wide variety of texts, themes such as nation, nationalism, modernity, multilingualism, culture, caste, gender, and sexuality will be investigated. Students will be required to respond to themes and issues in the form of personal narratives, critical essays, and presentations.

Course Objectives

The course aims to help the students to:

- understand the impact of socio-political and cultural constructs in India and look at how they result in the formation of stereotypes
- follow the contemporary debates and ask significant questions
- understand the connection between facts, history, and experiences
- create coherent and logical arguments based on evidence
- use literary imagination to respond to issues arising from diverse Indian cultural spheres

Course Outcomes

Students who successfully complete the course will be able to,

- demonstrate an understanding of diverse socio-cultural constructs
